

Manscaped

This video is brought to you by Manscaped.com, the global brand for men's grooming and hygiene products.

Just because guys in the tech industry are thought of being gross, basement-dwelling neckbeards, doesn't mean OUR basement-dwellers need to be gross neckbeards.

That's why I use Manscaped. They offer the best tools and liquid formulations for the 3 biggest odor zones: our bodies, butts, and our balls.

Manscaped hooked me up with a bunch of stuff from their all-in-one Perfect Package 4.0.

This is MANSCAPED's 4th generation electric, waterproof trimmer with Advanced SkinSafe™ Technology....which reduces nicks and cuts on the most sensitive regions of the body.

It's cordless and waterproof, so you can trim in the shower. That's super convenient and makes for easy clean-up, too.

This Lawn Mower™ 4.0 trimmer has a super smart charging system, with a wireless charging dock and these little LED lights on the front to show you how much juice you have (up to 90 minutes of use with a full charge!)

Tap the button on the front 3 times and it enables the "Travel Lock" feature, which is great for travel.

Also included in the Perfect Package 4.0 Kit are two products I never knew I needed until now... the Crop Preserver™ ball deodorant and the Crop Reviver™ ball toner spray!

Simply apply the Crop Preserver™ after your shower for all-day body odor protection. The Crop Reviver™ is a convenient spritz with cooling Aloe Vera to quickly refresh the area whenever you need it.

For a limited time, you get all this plus TWO FREE GIFTS - the Shed™ Travel Bag and the MANSCAPED™ anti-chafing boxer briefs
